

Access to Information and Protection of Privacy (Registration, Accreditation and Levy) (Amendment) Regulations, 2004 (No. 1)

It is hereby notified that the Minister of Information and Publicity has, in terms of section 91 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [Chapter 10:27], made the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy (Registration, Accreditation and Levy) (Amendment) Regulations, 2004 (No. 1).

2. The Access to Information and Protection of Privacy (Registration, Accreditation and Levy) Regulations, 2002, published in Statutory Instrument 169C of 2002 (hereinafter called “the principal regulations”) are amended in section 8—

- (a) in subsection (1) by the deletion of “sixty days” and the substitution of “thirty days”;
- (b) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) by the deletion from paragraph (a) of “new agency” and the substitution of “news agency”;
 - (ii) by the insertion after “continue” of “to”.

3. Section 10 (“Levy payable to media and information fund”) of the principal regulations is repealed and the following is substituted—

“Levy payable to media and information fund

10. (1) Not later than the end of a period of 90 days ending on the 31st December each year, every registered mass media service shall pay into the Media and Information Fund a levy of 0,5 per centum of its audited annual gross turn over.

(2) Every registered mass media service shall send a duly completed Media and Information Fund Levy form made in form AP6.

(3) The Chief Executive or the senior officer of the Media and Information Commission may send to the registered mass
